

Co-funded by the European Union

SAVE THE DATE
SAVE THE DATE
SAVE THE DATE
26-28.11.2022

LIMMUD EUROPE PRESENTS
LIMMUD RHINE

This online River Limmud is part of the Memory Futures project co-funded by the European Union

WHEN? 26-28 November 2022 (evenings, starting with Havdalah)

WHERE?

Your very own shtieblach
(i.e. in your own home, on Zoom)

WHO?

You! And many more Jews and their friends from across the Rhine Region (France, Germany, Switzerland, Luxembourg, Belgium and the Netherlands) and beyond! Sessions will be multilingual with interpretation into different languages.

WHAT?

A three-day evening programme full of history, culture, stories, language and much more discovering Rhineland Judaism yesterday, today and tomorrow! What is Rhine/Rhineland Judaism? Where does it come from and what role has it played in broader Jewish history? What are the current challenges and opportunities and how will it evolve in the decades to come? What do we speak? What do we eat and drink? What makes us distinctive? Are we different?

WELL?

Are you in? Save the Date, join the Organisational Team, be a Presenter, Moderator or Volunteer. We need you! Reach out to us at lamed@limmud.eu

SAVE THE DATE

SUBMIT SESSION

JOIN THE TEAM!